

Rochdale Artists

Newsletter 100
May - Aug 2017

Extra news about some of the events:-

May 9th Bring in your pen and wash inspired work.

May 16th Workshop try your hand at pyrography and bring your sketch book to do some still life practice.

Mon May 22nd Committee meeting

May 30th Bring any piece of work old or new to show and discuss with the group.

June 6th Meet at Geoff Butterworth's exhibition space in The Bank Gallery
847-849 Manchester Road
Castleton
Rochdale
OL11 2UY

To view over a 100 of his paintings and an attend an audience with Geoff.

June 27th Our annual watercolour challenge bring in a painting for the competition.

July 11th A talk by Urban artist Judith Alsop Miles. the appraisal for work inspired by this night will be Aug 1st. Please bring some basic materials: sketchbook or pad suitable for light washes, fineliner or fountain pen with permanent ink, graphite pencil and watercolours or watercolour pencils.

Aug 15th We have a life model and drawing coach for the evening come and practice sketching the human form. There will be an appraisal of the work on Aug 29th.

Our quarterly theme this time is the 1920's

Secretary -David Bebbington – 379609
Events Manager – Karen Glowa – 524182

MEETINGS

May 2nd Free painting

May 9th Pen and wash appraisal following J.Harrison's demo

May 16th Workshop pyrography and still life drawing

May 23rd Free Painting

May 30th Show and tell night

June 6th Geoff Butterworth exhibition evening

June 13th Free painting

June 20th Free Painting

June 27th Colin Gilbert watercolour challenge

July 4th Free Painting

July 11th Judith Alsop Miles talk on Urban Art

July 18th Free Painting

July 25th

Aug 1st Appraisal of work inspired by Judith Alsop Miles talk.

Aug 8th Free Painting

Aug 15th Life painting evening with model and coach.

Aug 22nd Centre closed

Aug 29th Centre closed

Please keep your eye on e-mails or the centre's notice board for alterations to these evening events.